Certification expiration date (CED): the date two years from the date of a school's previous Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) certification or recertification expiration date on which a school is required to file a completed petition for SEVP recertification.

Designated school official (DSO): a regularly employed member of the school administration designated by the head of a Student and Exchange Visitor Program-certified school to provide recommendations to F and/or M students enrolled at the school regarding maintenance of nonimmigrant status, and to support timely and complete record keeping and reporting to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA): a U.S. Department of Homeland Security agency that helps the United States prepare for, prevent, respond to and recover from disasters.

Form I-17, "Petition for Approval of School for Attendance by Nonimmigrant Student:" the form for a petition submitted and maintained by school officials electronically in the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System for the Student and Exchange Visitor Program certification of the school to enroll F and/or M students.

Form I-20, "Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student Status:" the form issued to an F or M nonimmigrant to be used as authorization for admission in and maintenance of nonimmigrant status for the duration of their visit in the United States.

Homeland Security Investigations (HSI): the investigative arm of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security that combats criminal organizations illegally exploiting U.S. travel, trade, financial and immigration systems.

Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE): a U.S. Department of Homeland Security agency that promotes homeland security and public safety through the criminal and civil enforcement of federal laws governing border control, customs, trade and immigration. Through the Student and Exchange Visitor Program, ICE helps secure the foreign student visa system.

Optional practical training (OPT): training that is not an integral part of the established curriculum. OPT does not fulfill requirements of an F-1 student's program of study and successful program completion is not contingent on participation in OPT. OPT may include:

- Pre-completion OPT
- Post-completion OPT
- 24-month extension of post-completion OPT
- H-1B cap gap

Principal designated school official (PDSO): the school official who is the primary point of contact for a Student and Exchange Visitor Program-certified school. A school's PDSO has additional responsibilities from other designated school officials, such as submitting certification and recertification packages.

SEVP External Training Application (SETA): a new learning management tool that provides training to Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) stakeholders, including U.S. government officials, school and program officials, and F, M and J nonimmigrants. The tool will provide training on a variety of subjects related to SEVP and the international student process.

SEVP Response Center (SRC): the primary contact at the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) for nonimmigrant students, academic institutions, government users of the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS), and the general public requesting guidance, data corrections and information on how to use SEVIS. Stakeholders can contact SRC by phone at 703-603-3400 or 800-892-4829, or via email at SEVP@ice.dhs.gov for general questions and SEVISTechnicalFeedback@ice.dhs.gov for technical questions. SRC is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. ET, except federal holidays.

Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS): an internet-based application that facilitates timely electronic reporting and monitoring of international students and exchange visitors, as well as their dependents, in the United States. This application enables schools and program sponsors to transmit electronic information to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and the U.S. Department of State throughout a student's or exchange visitor's program in the United States.

Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP): a part of the National Security Investigations Division and acts as a bridge for government organizations that have an interest in information on nonimmigrants whose primary reason for coming to the United States is to be students. On behalf of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, SEVP manages schools, nonimmigrant students in the F and M visa classifications and their dependents.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS): an agency within the U.S. Department of Homeland Security that authorizes benefits for students and exchange visitors. Students can request benefits such as employment, an extension of their stay or a change of status from USCIS.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP): a U.S. Department of Homeland Security agency that secures the borders of the United States, including airports, land borders and seaports. When entering the country, F and M students go through inspections with CBP officers and must present proper documentation.

U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS): a federal agency whose missions include preventing terrorism and enhancing security, managing U.S. borders, administering immigration laws, securing cyberspace and ensuring disaster resilience. Through Immigration and Customs Enforcement and the Student and Exchange Visitor Program, DHS secures the student visa system.
